5 Part Cheat Sheet To Give You An Unfair Advantage

By Emmanuel Wilkey

Introduction

Hi Fellow Entrepreneur

Congratulations on taking this first step into your exciting future!

You've got your hands on this cheat sheet because you've jumped on board with me in this exciting opportunity.....

So it's my goal to get you started off on the right foot and give you an unfair advantage so you can start getting sales quickly

First things first make sure you take the time to read the whole of this PDF report so as you learn the inner secrets....

Secondly.....Make sure you take action.

Remember.....

“Information is not power. Power is power. But what turns information into power is action.”

CHEAT 1

Make Sure You Set Up Your Aweber Email System

Now in order to make any online opportunity work you need what is known as an autoresponder.

What that means really is you need a system that will send emails out for you regularly at the times you specify

If you haven't already got one, then I recommend that you get Aweber.

It is a great easy to use beginner level autoresponder that you will need to have to profit online with any programme and especially with this one.

But the best bit is you can get it and get started for free.

As well as that you can plug in emails that have already been written for you by top copywriters in this programme. So, when people get these emails they are inspired to open them, click on the links and buy from your affiliate links :)

Get your FREE Aweber account by clicking the link below:

CHEAT 2

Make Your Link Sexy 😊

Most people don't like to click on affiliate links.

Don't know why that is.... Maybe they just don't want to give any money to the referrer.

Maybe they are just mean. Who knows because they aren't charged any extra....

But we are not here to find that out.

We just want to make links look as nice and sexy as possible so that people feel better about clicking them

Which would you rather click?

Or

So, in order to get nice short punchy links, you should use a link shortener and a couple of good ones are:

www.tinyurl.com

Take your link plug it into one of those and get a nice short easy to click on link

CHEAT 3

Setup Your Own FaceBook Page And Ethically Steal The Product Owner's Posts

So, this is a real ninja technique.

It is not hard to set up a facebook page. If your not sure how to do that just go and Google "How To Setup a Facebook Page".

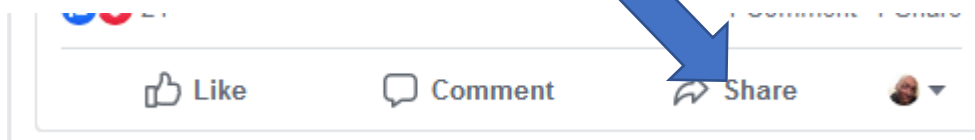

It will take you about 15 minutes tops.

But the question is what do I put on there.....

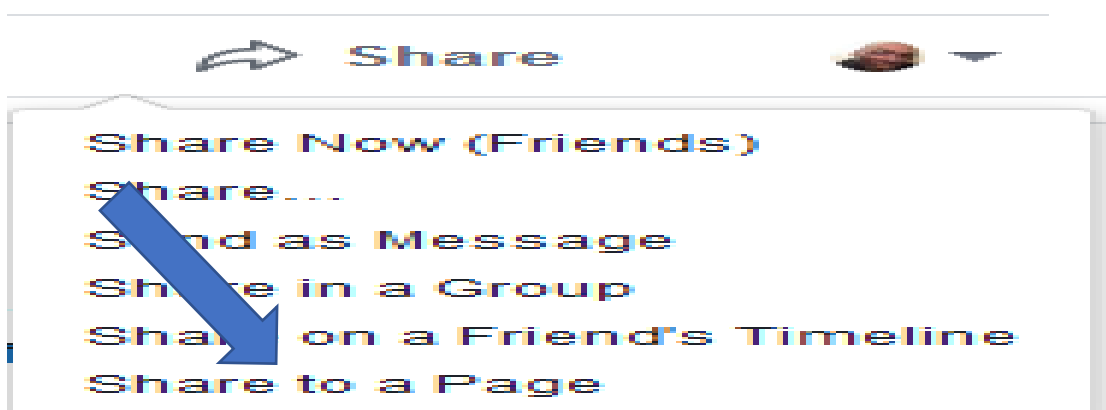

That's the best bit...

Whatever the product owner uploads (and they upload on a regular basis) all you do is go to their post.....

Click on Share Post

Then Click On Share To Page

Then just share their post to your page.

Then lastly all you need to do is just put your link at the top.....

So they do the work and you ethically steal it 😊

They don't mind you are promoting their product after all.

Now when anyone comes to your page (and you can boost the post if you want but that's something else)...They will end up clicking on your affiliate link because they like your content 😊

The image shows a Facebook post from the page "12 Minute Affiliate". The post is dated "April 26 at 3:42 AM" and includes a globe icon. The text of the post asks if the user is ready to start an affiliate marketing business and offers to help, with a call to action to "CLICK LINK IN COMMENTS to learn more." Below the text is a large promotional image. This image features a man in a suit speaking on a stage with a large, colorful logo behind him. In the bottom left of the promotional image is a box for the "12 MINUTE AFFILIATE" system, which is described as a "Plug-And-Play System" that makes it easy to pocket affiliate commissions. In the bottom right of the promotional image, the text reads "This System Automates Your Affiliate Marketing Business" and lists three partner logos: "CLICKBANK", "JVZoo", and "Warrior+Plus".

Test New Traffic Vendors Cheaply 😊

Traffic is where the rubber meets the road in any affiliate marketing business.

Without good traffic you will make zero sales and zero money.

Most opportunities let you use their traffic agencies and more time than not unless the traffic is complete crap, you can use that to get results.

But my motto is test, test, test.

So, here's a couple of gems that you can try to get better results:

And my crème de la crème go to solo ad guy that guarantees sales if you get a certain amount is.....

I rarely share him so this is worth the price of the course and more...

CHEAT 5

How To Write Engaging Emails That Get You Clicks And Gets You Sales

Writing good engaging emails will completely change your affiliate marketing business and overall earning potential.

You could easily pay $5,000 for a good copywriter to write you a good email series because that's how valuable this skill is.

Now you could spend the next 5 years of your life learning to be a good copywriter.....But luckily for you..

In the opportunity you've purchased they have done all the hard work for you because they have done-for you emails that are already written by top copywriters that you just plug straight into your Aweber autoresponder (that we discussed in Cheat 1)

And you're good to go... 😊

But every now and then I advise that you write to the people on your email list just to build a bit of a relationship

But "What do I write"

I hear you scream in panic lol

Well in free PDF below it outlines how to structure a really good email and even better they have templates that you can just copy and paste (obviously put your name on it)

Check it out here:

You never know you might start liking writing emails, in time 😊

Ok well that's all for now. Remember take action on what your learning and you will soon see some amazing results
